

SIMPLE, INTERACTIVE AND RESPONSIVE QUIZ APPLICATION

Designed to work on any screen on any device, this quiz leads users through a series of questions to determine the value of their current ESP. Navigation through pages is animated with CSS3 as well as the animated progress bar. Required form fields are declared with HTML5 attributes. Back-up support for non-HTML5 browsers.

After submission of the form, users are sent to the results page where their score is displayed. The score contains a level of 'fill' to match the score percentage. The text content beneath is also specific to the score range.

WEBSITE POPOVER FOR POLLS AND PETITIONS

A simple jQuery Colorbox executed with the absence of a cookie, this popover delivers petitions and polls on news publication websites. Originally built for The National Memo, it is now used on over 10 other news publication websites and blogs including Washington Monthly and The Daily Banter. Delivery of multiple petition campaigns from multiple advertisers is run by Adzerk. Over 30 different advertisers have had campaigns including Obama for America, Ready For Hillary, DCCC and NRDC.
